

Fairy Doors of Ann Arbor, Michigan

Jonathan B. Wright and his family are native to Ann Arbor. After purchasing a 100-yr old house in town, they started to make startling discoveries - little six-inch high doors throughout their home. Soon, Jonathan began to discover these little doors throughout downtown Ann Arbor. Clearly, Ann Arbor is being inhabited by fairies! Who knows where they will build their next home?

For more information:
<http://www.urban-fairies.com>

Inside views of the fairy store and one of their houses.

